Re: payment of T.V. Charge allowance to the family of late Sri. Rajaratnam, P.O.

4654 C.B.

Submitted.

1) G.O. has been issued sanctioning a pension of Rs 75/- p.m. to the wife of late Sri. Rajaratnam and a sum of Rs 10/ p.m. to the minor child till it attains 18 yrs.

2) A T.V. Charge allowance of Rs 25/ p.m. was sanctioned to late Sri. Rajaratnam for the period he was in additional charge of the duties of publicity Officer and the same has not been drawn by him. In para 8 d of Supra an enhanced charge allowance of Rs 60/ p.m. has been ordered to be paid to the heirs of late Sri. Rajaratnam.

3) In view of special pension sanctioned to the family of late Sri. Rajaratnam, it does not appear to be necessary that any enhanced charge allowance be granted to the family of the Officer. It is open to the heirs of the Officer to draw the charge allowance of Rs 25 at the rate of Rs 25/ p.m.

Submitted for orders.

24/6/49.

4) In para 8 of the notes 29.6.49 a suggestion was made to the effect that the heirs of late Sri G.V. Rajaratnam may be paid a charge allowance calculated at 1/10 of Rs 600/- or Rs 60/- pm. with effect from 16-9-46, the date on which the old grade of Rs 600-50-850 was sanctioned, to 3-7-47, the date on which late Sri Rajaratnam was appointed Publicity Officer.

4) This proposal has not been pursued further in view of the fact that the question of granting a pension to the family was taken up for consideration in the meantime.
This latter question has now been settled and a pension of Rs 75/- pm.
has been sanctioned to the widow of late Sri Rajaratnam and a sum of Rs 10/- pm. to the minor child.

5) The proposal made at para 3
above an enhanced charge allowance at the rate of Rs 60/- pm remains for disposal. Which it is, of course, open open to the family to claim charge allowance at the rate of Rs 25/- p.m. it remains undrawn. It is for consideration whether in view of the premature demise of this officer and the unfortunate occasion connected with it the concession proposed at para 8 may perhaps still be sanctioned as a further measure of relief to the bereaved family.

So) This case has already been considered, fairly generously perhaps. Charge allowance at Rs 25/- p.m. for two years may be paid, if claimed, as it is according to M.S.R. There does not seem to be any need to consider the suggestion made at para 8 which was made prior to the grant of a family pension & scholarship to the minor child

Bangalore,

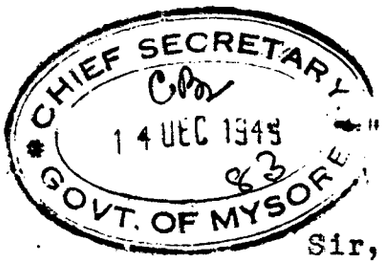
Dated, 13th December 1949

To

The Chief Secretary to

the Government of Mysore,

Bangalore



Sir,

I, G.V. Saraswathi, widow of the late G.V. Rajaratnam, Publicity Officer to Government, who died in harness in January 1949, beg to submit the following few lines for your kind consideration and early orders.

I am aware that my husband was in charge of the duties of the Publicity Officer to Government for a number of months before he was confirmed as Publicity Officer on 3rd July 1947. He had sent a claim for In Charge Allowance for this period prior to his death and the same was sanctioned. But, most unfortunately, he died before he could receive payment, leaving me forelorn and in distress.

I request you, therefore, to be kind enough to see that the Charge Allowance due to him for the period in question may be caused to be paid to me, which, in these hard days, will be a source of immense help.

Yours sincerely,

G.V. Saraswati
